

Resolution

Hamilton Park Pacesetter Magnet Elementary School

40th Anniversary

BE IT REMEMBERED, that Dallas County Commissioner Theresa M. Daniel, District 1, presented the following resolution to Hamilton Park Pacesetter Magnet Elementary School:

WHEREAS, Hamilton Park, the first African American inspired suburban development in Dallas County, opened in 1954 along with the Hamilton Park School, the Bobcats, serving grades 1-12; and

WHEREAS, In 1975, the Hamilton Park Pacesetter Magnet School was created, serving grades K-6, as an unparalleled academic program and the first Magnet elementary school in the Richardson Independent School District; and

WHEREAS, The opening of the Hamilton Park Pacesetter Magnet School generated national interest as an academic and social role model. The Hamilton Park Pacesetter Magnet School was frequently toured and studied by other school districts locally and throughout the United States; and

WHEREAS, Today marks the grand opening of the iLab, a one of a kind innovative classroom, complete with state of the art technology, an interactive projector, flexible furniture, and iPads; and

WHEREAS, Through strong academic programming, fine arts, creative teaching and a number of community and volunteer opportunities, Hamilton Park Pacesetter Magnet School sets the pace for L.I.F.E. - Leadership, Innovation, Fine Arts, Excellence - preparing students for success and creating a stronger economy for the future.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that Dallas County Commissioner Dr. Theresa M. Daniel calls upon all citizens to join in the Hamilton Park Pacesetter Magnet School's celebration of L.I.F.E. @ 40, applauding an innovative academic institution built on many "firsts" in the Richardson Independent School District.
