COUNTY OF DALLAS §

Preserving History in the City of Garland, Dallas County

BE IT REMEMBERED, that the Dallas County Commissioners Court, congratulates the Interurban Land Company's Travis College Hill Historic District for being the only Garland neighborhood ever to receive a Texas Historical Marker on this 11th day of April, 2015, on motion made by Dr. Theresa M. Daniel, the following Resolution was adopted:

- WHEREAS, The Texas Historical Commission has designated the Travis College Hill Addition to receive a historical marker for 1915; and
- WHEREAS, The Dallas County Historical Commission was the sponsor of Travis College Hill's application to receive a Texas Historical Marker; and
- WHEREAS, The area along South 11th Street between Avenues B and D in Garland, which originated 102 years ago as part of the Interurban Land Company's Travis College Hill Addition, was officially platted on January 3, 1913, has five historic homes, and is the new home to the relocated historic Pace House; and
- WHEREAS, The two-block area has, in its history, been the home of three Garland mayors, five city council members, one president of the Garland Independent School District, as well as some of the city's best-known business, civic, political, and religious leaders; and
- WHEREAS, Last May 20 the Garland City Council voted unanimously to designate the Travis College Hill neighborhood as Garland's first historic district.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that on behalf of the Dallas County Commissioners Court, I commend the residents of the Travis College Hill neighborhood for their efforts to preserve the neighborhood's rich history and the restoration of its historic homes.
