Eviction Clinic – April 23rd

Dallas County, in association with Dallas County Health and Human Services, United Way of Metropolitan Dallas, Legal Aid of Northwest Texas, and the Dallas Eviction Advocacy Center will be hosting an eviction clinic on Saturday, April 23, 2022 from 9:00 am – 1:00 pm at the Oak Cliff Government Center (702 E Jefferson Blvd. Dallas, TX 75203).

The eviction clinic aims to assist and inform residents about the resources available to them. The clinic is also beneficial for landlords since they are a part of the rental assistance application process.

child abuse PREVENTION MONTH

April is National Child Abuse Prevention and National Sexual Assault Awareness Month. These months recognize the importance of families and communities working together to prevent child abuse, neglect, and to spread the awareness to prevent sexual assault. Dallas County is committed to providing prevention services and support to help protect children, produce thriving families, and raising awareness to prevent sexual assault or abuse.

Saludos!
