You can no longer wait for others to change your future. A better tomorrow for you and the ones you love is in your hands NOW.

Voting is your right and your responsibility and by not doing so, you are muting your voice and allowing others to decide for you.

Make sure you go out and vote. Put it on top of your priority list of things to do and encourage others to do the same.

As we transition from the cool winter breezes to the warm spring sun rays, we have the perfect scenario to reflect and be thankful for those "Unsung Heroes" who do so much for our well being.

I take this moment to remember our fallen soldiers and salute their families, as they have given their lives for the freedom of our country.

We also celebrate all Mothers, and recognize them for the arduous work they do to raise productive, successful and contributing citizens in our society.

Their sacrifice does not go unnoticed

Thank You!
